A PIECE OF LEGAL ADVICE.

The ancient town of Rennes, in France, is a place famous for law. To visit Rennes without getting advice of some sort, seems absurd to the country people round about. It happened one day that a farmer named Bernard, having come to town on business. bethought himself that as he had a few hours to spare, it would be well to get the advice of a good lawyer. He had often goin' straight to G ---, and afore he came and threw down a sovereign to be spent by heard of a lawyer Foy, who was in such high repute that people believed a lawsuit gained when he undertook their cause. The countryman went to his office and after waiting some time, was admitted to an interview. He told the lawver that having heard so much about him, and happening to be in town, he thought he would all and consult him.

You wish to bring an action perhaps, eplied the lawver.'

· O, no,' replied the farmer, 'I sm at eace with all the world.' . Then it is a settlement of property that

It is, then, to get me to negotiate a purchase or a sale, that you have come?'

·O. no. I am neither rich enough to purchase nor poor enough to sell." · Will you tell me, then, what you do want of me?' said the lawyer in a tone of advice-I mean to pay for it, of course. The lawyer smiled, and taking pen and paper, asked the countryman his name.

· Peter Bernard,' replied the countryman, quite happy that the lawyer at length understood what he wanted. · Your age?'

'Thirty years, or very near it."

. Your vocation?"

. What's that ?' · What do you do for a living? · ()! that is what it means, is it?

Why I am a farmer.' The lawyer wrote two lines, folded the paper and handed it to his client.

'Is it finished already? said the farmer. Well and good! What is to be the price of that advice, Mr. Lawyer?"

It is not to be denied that the Democracy of.

pling their energies and wresting from their sachusetts for consolation! hands the fruits of a victory which they might easily have won; for the resurt shows that the combined vote of the 'Hards' and "Sofis" was greater than that of any other party. But the Democratic party quarrelled among themselves, and the victory was lost to them. Yet the Know-Nothings have certainly very little to rejoice over. In the place of carrying the city of New York by a majority of 14,000, the Know-Nothings have succeeded in electing only three of the candidates on their city ticket. They elect the Co. ptroller, Street Commissioner, and City Inspector, while the Democrats elect the Sheriff, Coun y Clerk. Commissioner of Repairs and Suppiics Corporation Counsel, and Governor of the Alms house.

When we come to analyze the vote of the State by counties, the weakness of the Know-Nothings is still more apparent .-The State Senate now stands, 14 fusionists, 6 Democrats, 6 Know-Nothings, and six districts to hear from. The Assembly stands, 46 Democrats, 41 Fusionists, and thirty Know-Nothings, or thirty six Know-Nothings in the two branches of the Leg-State. Sam's mighty successes in New York now dwindle down to the election of their State ticket (with one exception) by a plurality, with three other tickets in the LOUISIANA AND MISSISSIPPII Democracy Triumphant!

The Democracy of these gallant States, enrolled themselves as members of the great Southern phalanx, and have put the seal of their indignant reprobation upon the yankee fungus of Know-Nothingism. Both States have carried the entire Democratic State ticket triumphantly into power. In Louisiana, Wickliffe Dem., is elected Governor, and Taylor, Davidson and Sandidge, Dems., and Eustus, K. N., to Congress. We are especially pleased to hear that Mr. Hunt, K. N., has been defeated for Congress. TO OUR FRIENDS AND PATRONS. TN presenting ourselves to our patrons and the public at this time, we again have to acknow edge our obligations for the friendly and liberal manner in which we have been sustained. - At no time of our business career, which is now of three years' standing, have our prospects been more flattering. We always have and ever shall endeavor to square our business principles by jus tice, equity and truth. We are well aware that a prosperous and respectable business cannot be lone unless inducements are offered; these we mve offered, and will continue to offer. We de-size to prosecute our business in such a manner as to give pleasure and satisfaction to ourselves as well as essential advantages to the community a large. We much regret that circumstances ive prevented us from establishing facilities h as the present wants of our customers and a public demand. We have been and are connually doing what our position and resources all warrant in perfecting our means of supply, and appropriate annually a reasonable proportion our net profits for that object; we being deemined that our establishment shall not degen ate for the want of care and attention, and

Amid thy silent bowers. 'Tis sad, but sweet to dwell, Where falling leaves and drooping flow Around me breathe, farewell.

Along thy sunset skies Their glories melt in shade, And like the things we fondly prize, Seem loveier as they fade.

A deep and orimson streak Thy dying leaves disclose; As on consumption's waning cheek, 'Mid ruin, blooms the rose.

Thy scene each vision brings Of beauty in decay; Of fair and early faded things, Too exquisite to stay; -

Of joys that come no more; Of flowers whose blood is fled; Of farewells wept upon the shore; Of friends estranged or dead;-

Or all that now may seem, To memory's tearful eye. The vanished beauty of a dream, O'er which we gaze and sigh

GENERAL SELECTIONS.

THE LOST SAVED.

Several years ago, says the New York Evangelist, we were crossing the Atlantic ocean One afternoon the passengers were sitting in the cabin, when we heard a cry the most fearful that ever rings through the ship. 'A man overboard?' We flew to the deck, and there saw struggling in the water, a cabin boy, who a few mo ments before had gone out on the bowsprit to bring a seaman's clothes, and had been swept off by a powerful wave. He saw it coming and tried to hold on, but his arms were too weak for a mighty billow. The wind was blowing almost a gale, the sea ran high, and the waves were rearing As the ship flew before the blast, the boy was every me nent drifting farther from us The scene at this moment baffles description The whole ship's company, four hundred persons, were gathered on deck; women crying, and all in consternation, that they could not instantly snatch him from a watery grave. The voice of the captain range through the ship, ordering the boats to be put down, and the ship to be put about The mate and a couple of stom sailors sprang into the boat and it was lowere away. In an instant she touched the sea and with long and swift strokes of the our the seamen drove her through the water It was a pul for life.

The boy by this time had drifted perhaps a half a mile astern. We saw him afar off. a mere speck upon the waters, now altogether lost to sight and now tossed into view by a wave. The boat grew smaller in the distance. Rising and falling with the waves, it sometimes almost sunk ou of view. Never shall we forget the anxie ty with which we followed the boat. A length it seemed to approach the distart speck. a motion was made, as if the mer were catching something in the water, and pulling it on board. And then the boa turned its head towards the ship. As yet we could not see distinctly whether the boy had been picked up or sunk. The Foat came along side of the ship, and was hoisted up by the side of the ship with the hearty pulls of almost all on board. We were not quite sure of the result, till we saw the mate step upon the deck, wrapping in his strong arms a wet, shivering, almost dead boy. Never did we experience such a feeling of relief as at that moment. A murmur of approbation and joy, though almost checked with tears, ran through the ship; a thrill like that which runs through heaven when a human soul, shipwrecked, and about to perish, is rescued and brought back to God!

Every man is somewhat in the situation of that boy, struggling like a strong swimmer on the sea of life. And when one is saved from the billows which threaten to engulf him, there goes up from those on high, who are spectators of the scene, a shout like the sound of many wa-

THE SPIRIT OF LOVE.

'Charity (or love) never faileth.'-1 Cor xiii. 8 Beyond all question, it is the unalterable constitution of nature that there is efficacy. divine, unspeakable efficacy, in love. The exhibition of kindness has the power even to bring the irrational animal into subjection. Show kindness to a cog. and he will remember it; he will be grateful; he will infallibly return love for love Show kindness to a lion, and you can lead him by the mane; you can thrus your head into his mouth; you can melt the untamed ferocity of his beart into an affection stronger than death. In all of tiod's vast, unbounded creation. there is not a living and sentient being, from the least to the largest, not one, not even the outcast and degraded serpent, that is insensible to acts of kindness. If love, such as our blessed Saviour manifested, could be introduced into the world, and exert appropriate dominion, it would restore a state of things far more cheering, far brighter than the fabulous age of gold; it would annihilate every sting; it would pluck every poisonous tooth, it would hush every discordant voice. Even the inanimate creation is not insensible to this divine influence. The bud and flower and fruit put forth most abundantly and beautifully where the hand of kindness is extended for their culture. And if this blessed influence should extend itself over this earth. A large assortment of House and Ship furnishing a moral Garden Eden would exist in every land; instead of the thorn and brier would spring up the fir tree and the myrtle; the desort would blossom and the solitary place be made glad, - Upham.

BALTIMORE LOCK HOSPITAL. W TERE may be obtained the most speedy remedy for weakness or loss of Organic Powers, Pain in the Loins, Diseases of the Kidneys, Affections of the Head, Throat, Nose and Skin, Constitutional Debility, impediments to Marriage and all those horrid affections arising from indiscretions, no matter whether from in-temperance, or the use of ardent spirits or any other cause.

TO YOUNG MEN. especially who have become the victims of evil practices. Alas! what countless numbers of gengrous and noble-hearted beings have been swept to untimely tombe; thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellects. who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or vaked to ecstacy the living lyre. Those suffering from any of the following melancholy effects, should immediately apply to DR. JOHNSTON. Weakness of the Buck and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Ligestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c., &c., &c.

MENTALLY .- The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, Confusion of ideas, Depression of Spirits, Forebodings of Evil, Aversion of Society, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, etc., are some of the evils produced OFFICE-No. 7, South Frederick Street, Sev-

The many thousands cured at this Institution, and the very extensive practice of Dr. Johnston, (exceeding all others) besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee that he is the only proper Physician to be consulted. Dr. Johnston, member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and avail themselves of this ramedy. the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known. Many troubled with ringing in the cars and head when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudment of mind. were cured immediately. TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Parents and Guardians are often misled with respect to the cause or source of disease in their sons and wards. Alas! how often do they ascribe to other causes th, wasting of the frame, Pallitation of Heart Dysphesia, Indigestion, de-- 2 ment of the Nervous System, Cough, and S. inptons of Consumption, also those serious mental effects, such as loss of Memory, Depression of Spirits or peculiar fits of melancholy, when the truth is they have been caused by indulging in Pernicious but alluring practices, destructive to both body and mind. Thus are swept from existence thousands who might have been of use to their country, a pleasure to their DR. JOHNSTON'S INVIGORATING REMEDY

FOR ORGANIC WEAKNESS. This grand and important Remedy has restored strength and vigor to thousands of the most debilitated individuals, many who had lost all hopes, and been abandoned to die. By ts complete invigoration of the nervous system the whole faculties become restored to their proper power and functions, and the fallen fabric of life is raised up to beauty, consistency and duration, upon the ruins of an emaciated and remature decline, to sound and pristine health. MILK LEG. DREADPEL TLORR-PALPITA-TION, WEAKNESS-MOTHER AND DAUGH-TER CURED-HAMPTON'S TINUTURE

TRIUMPHANT! UNDREDS OF OUR OWN CITIZENS, the Read the following certificate from a lady, endorsed by Postmaster E. P. Cooper:

CAPON BRIDGE,
Hampshire county, Va., March 1, 1854.

Mr. E. P. Cooper.—Dear Sir: Agreeable to your request, and my own desire to benefit the afflicted, I hereby certify the great relief I received from the use of HAMPTON'S VEGETA-BLE TINCTURE. I was taken with a violent palpitation, or rather fluttering of the heart, which continued several days; it seemed ough my heart had almost forgotten its office. The family became alarmed and procured a bottle of this valuable medicine, and before I had taken near one bottle of this valuable redicine, and before I had aken near one bottle of this TINCTURE OF HAMPTON'S I was entirely relieved.

This is the third instance of relief in my famiv by the use of this valuable medicine. Two or three years ago, I was laid up with ulceraion of my ankle, from the effect of what is usu ally called a milk leg. I had lost all taste and appetite: and the sore which was some four inches up and down, and half-way around my ankle, rejected every effort to heal it. until procured HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINC TURE, one bottle of which restored my health, healed my ankle, and I am freer from swelling than the last thirty years.
